Sadly, the Cherry/Gordon case lives on in Raleigh. Neighbor Gail Wiesner, having lost her case in Wake County Superior Court, having lost again at the North Carolina Court of Appeals, filed yet another appeal, this time to the North Carolina Supreme Court.

NCMH LEGAL DEFENSE FUND

Want to help with the enormous legal costs of defending this house? The NCMH Legal Defense Fund (LDF) provides technical assistance, funding for legal representation, and other support services to endangered Modernist houses in North Carolina as determined by NCMH. From preserving historically significant Modernist houses to standing for due process for new Modernist houses under threat, the LDF actively advocates for North Carolina's great legacy of Modernist residential architecture. Help find the missing recording: Frank Lloyd Wright spoke in Raleigh in May of 1950. At the time it was the biggest architecture lecture in history, with over 5,000 attending in then-new Reynolds Coliseum on the campus of NC State University. We've heard that this landmark talk got recorded, and we're on the hunt for a copy. If you've ever heard of someone who taped it, or you've got any other clues, please contact George Smart at george@ncmodernist.org or 919.740.8407.

Purge, purge, purge! Got old architecture magazines in your office, basement, or attic? NCMH's Colossus Archive welcomes donations of mainstream architecture magazines especially Architectural Forum, House + Home, GA Houses, Residential Architect, Metropolis, Arts+Architecture, Architect, AIA Journal, Architecture, and Progressive Architecture. Please reply to this email or call George Smart at 919.740.8407 to arrange free pickup or shipping.

Needin' some lovin': The classic 1951 A. M. and Ruth Fleishman Residence, 2614 Morganton Road, Fayetteville NC. Designed by Greensboro's celebrated architect Edward Loewenstein. Jim Brandt was the draftsman. Built by Ed Rynick. This endangered Modernist house, on the market for three years, has recently been cleaned up and you can really appreciate the masterful design. Additional photos. Details in For Sale, Endangered Section.

Now at the Bechtler Museum in Charlotte NC. The House that Modernism Built presents mid-20th century art alongside furniture, textile and ceramic holdings on loan from various institutions including Eames Office, Herman Miller Archives, the NCSU Gregg Museum of Art & Design and private collectors. The exhibition illustrates how the modern aesthetic shaped people's lives during the 20th century including groundbreaking choices of material and technique by Victor Vasarely, Zoltan Kemeny, Kenneth Noland, Roy Lichtenstein,

Charles and Ray Eames, Alexander Girard, and Buckminster Fuller.
